Best Practices-I

Eco-Friendly Campus

Objective:

The objective of an eco-friendly campus is to promote sustainability by reducing the institution's ecological footprint, fostering environmental awareness, and encouraging green practices for a healthier planet.

Practice:

Eco-friendly campus practices include energy efficiency, waste management, water conservation, and promoting green spaces. Additionally, sustainable transportation, awareness programs, and paperless operations contribute to a greener environment.

Evidence of Success:

Sadhu Vaswani (Autonomous) College has installed solar panels on the roof, promotes the use of LEDs, and supports rainwater harvesting to enhance sustainability. The campus features a lush green environment, encouraging bicycle use and fostering an eco-friendly atmosphere

Best Practices-II

Contributory Poor Students' Relief Fund & Scholarships other than Government

Context

Contributory Poor Students' Relief Fund, created under the Sri Dayaram Daryani Memorial Fund, exemplifies the generosity and commitment of the staff and management of Sadhu Vaswani College.

Objective:

1. To provide financial assistance to the students having incapable of paying fees.
2. To encourage studious students from low-income families to pursue higher education.
3. To encourage children to study in order for them to become self-sufficient and have a decent life and future.

Success

Thirty-eight students were benefited from this contributory fund.

Other Private Scholarships

The Nihchal Israni Foundation offers financial assistance to underprivileged students at your college. One of the key scholarships provided by the foundation is the Geeta Israni Scholarship, which amounts to Rs 3,00,000 (Three lakh rupees) for the academic year 2023-24. This scholarship was awarded to 30 students.

Additionally, the Sitaram Jindal Foundation from Bangalore also extends financial aid to support poor students at our college.
