Difference Between Type A and Type B Personality

A Study by Surbhi S

Based on personality, people can be bifurcated in two categories i.e. Type A personality and Type B personality. It is the most common individual level stressor and explains two different types of personality. These are known to influence the possibility of an individual's acquiring health related problems like heart ailments. Type A people are highly competitive, self-critical. They continuously strive for goals without paying much attention to efforts and accomplishments. Type B individuals are usually more tolerant, relaxed, reflective than Type A. So if you are concerned about which personality type you carry, take a glance at the article excerpt and identify yourself.

Definition of Type A Personality

Type A personality implies a temperament which is stress prone, concerned with time management. They are ambitious, rigidly organised, hard-working, anxious, highly status conscious, hostile and aggressive. Individuals who possess Type A personality have the following behavioural patterns:

- They move, walk and eat fast.
- Great at multitasking.
- Self-driven feels guilty when relaxing.
- Feels impatient with the pace of things, dislikes waiting.
- They have a busy schedule and do not have time to enjoy.
- Use nervous gestures like clenched fist or banging hand on the table.
- They are high achievers, perform beyond par.
- They do not easily accept failures.

Definition of Type B Personality

Type B personality is one that is less prone to stress, easy going, work steadily, enjoy achievement, modest ambition and live in the moment. They are social, creative, thoughtful, procrastinating. Individuals who possess Type B personality are associated with the following behavioural traits:

- They are not concerned about time.
- They compete for fun, not to win.
- Mild-mannered.
- Never in a hurry and have no pressing deadlines.
- Do not brag.
- Focus on quality rather than quantity.
- Laid back and live stress-less life.

Conclusion:

So with the above discussion you might have identified as to which personality type is yours. If you belong to Type A personality you need to be more cautious as they are more prone heart diseases as compared to Type B individuals. These two personality types are diametrically opposite of each other wherein one dislike failure and work hard to avoid it, while one is not even affected by it.

150TH ANNIVERSARY OF GANDHI JAYANTI CELEBRATION

The college celebrated 150th Anniversary of Gandhi Jayanti on 2nd OCT. All teachers, students and staff attended the event. The celebrations for Gandhi Jayanti started welcoming all the teachers and students explained the significance of the day. The program began with lighting of the lamp by our Principal DR. A K Singh. As part of these celebrations many competitions on various activities was held for staff and students of the academy.

The program commenced with the live telecast of our chief minister's speech. Paying homage to Gandhi, on his 150th birth anniversary, Kamal Nath, Chief Minister of Madhya Pradesh on October 2 stated that the country would have perished had it not walked the path of Mahatma Gandhi. In a tribute to the 'Father of the Nation,' Nath called Gandhi a 'global leader' stating that our culture would cease to exist if the people of the country do not follow the path paved by Gandhi himself. The CM had earlier conducted a procession to pay a tribute to Mahatma Gandhi. He led a procession of Congress workers from Roshanpura Chowk to the Minto Hall in the early hours of the morning, which culminated in him garlanding a statue of Gandhi in the Minto Hall.

After the chief minister's speech, a Hindi essay writing competition was held for the students. The students were asked to write on the topic "samaj me samajik samrasta sthapit karne ke pravdhan evam uske parinam tatha prabhav". The Essay was judged on the basis of the student's vocabulary and creativity. The purpose of the competition was to encourage the students to enhance their thinking and writing skills. The Essays were well written by the students. Result is as follows.
